(5) Choephel: A 33-year-old, Choephel of Urjamsang family, Unit No. 2, Meruma Township, Ngaba County, Ngaba "TAP" Sichuan Province, who was involved in March 15, 16 and 17 protests in Ngaba County last year was sentenced to four years' jail term by the Ngaba County Intermediate People's Court on 4 November 2008. The court original sentence of ten years' jail term to Choephel was later commuted to four years' term on the ground of his clean past record, according to the source. The Intermediate People's Court of Ngaba County convicted Choephel on alleged crimes of leading protest, looting and ransacking County Public Security Bureau (PSB) office and burning national flag in a series of protests that took place in Ngaba County last spring.

"Following a massive protest in Meruma Township in Ngaba County on 17 March 2008 which was participated by hundreds of Tibetans, the County PSB officers in a sudden raid stormed into Choephel's home to detain him. He was beaten black and blue with rifle butts resulting in a serious injuries to his left eye, head and limbs. However, he managed to ran and flee towards a hill adjacent to his unit where he went into hiding for few days before returning home. However, on 4 April the PSB officials in a surprise raid arbitrarily detained him from his home. For four months Choephel's family members were not able to trace his whereabouts despite frantic searches and phone calls to local offices. Later at the end of August 2008, family members learnt about his detention at Barkham County PSB Detention Centre. They even sent clothes, eatables and written message to him but were unsure whether those items reach him or not. Even his father, Urjam, was subjected to rigorous interrogation at Meruma Township Police station after the detention of Choephel."

On the evening of 3 November 2008, Choephel family received a phone call from Ngaba County PSB office informing family members about the court trial the next day. The family members, relatives and friends went to the Ngaba County Intermediate People's Court for the hearing the next day, however, only two persons were allowed inside the courtroom. The verdict was read out by the chief judge and convicted Choephel on alleged charges of leading the protest, ransacking and looting county PSB office and burning national flag. The court's original verdict of ten years' jail term to Choephel was later commuted to four years' on the ground of his clean past record.

Finally on 19 January 2009, the family members were allowed to meet Choephel after seeking permission from the local police station and enquiring about the exact location of his detention. They were told to communicate only in Chinese and not in their mother tongue through a barricaded glass separating them. No clothes or eatables were allowed to offer except for the cash. Choephel is known to have been blinded his left eye from the injuries he sustained during security forces assault on 17 March raid at his home. Choephel is known to have been taken to a distant Menyang court, about 200 Kms outside the provincial capital, Chengdu.

Ngawang Lhundup: A 22 years old monk of Kardze Monastery was detained along with his friend Kel Nyima by the Kardze County Security Bureau (PSB) on 9 June 2008 for staging a protest demonstration at Kardze County headquarters. Ngawang Lhundup was sentenced to prison term of four years in early January of 2009 by the Kardze Intermediate People's Court. There was no information as to whereabouts of Ngawang Lhundup since his arrest by the PSB officials until his Court sentence. The fate of his friend Kel Nyima is still unknown.

Ngawang Lhundup was born to Mr. Sangay Wangchuk and Mrs. Yarkong in Dhago village, Dhago Township, Kardze County, Kardze "TAP" Sichuan Province.

(5)Pema Lhamo: In January 2009, Pema Lhamo a Nun of Kardze Gaden Choeling Nunnery was sentenced to three years imprisonment term by the Kardze Intermediate People's Court for her involvement in peaceful protest on 14 May 2008 at Kardze County, Kardze "TAP" Sichuan Province.

Samye: Nine monks studying at Samye Monastery in Tibet were sentenced to varying prison terms between 2-15 years' in jail for their participation in the last Spring Tibet protest in Lhoka Prefecture "TAR" and a monk committed suicide.

The Lhoka Intermediate People's Court sentenced nine monks to varying terms between 2 -15 years' in jail for their participation in the 15 March 2008 protest which took place at Samye government administrative headquarters in Dranang County (Ch: Zhanang xian), Lhoka (Ch: Shannan) Prefecture, "TAR". They were detained at Lhoka Public Security Bureau (PSB) Detention Centre following a brief protest demonstration. The protest was joined by hundreds of Tibetans of Dranang County calling for the "swift return of the Dalai Lama to Tibet", "religious freedom" and "human rights for Tibetans." Although, the exact date of their court sentence could not be ascertained, however, they were known to have been sentenced in May-June 2008.

Following the protest the movements of the monastic populace were severely restricted that not a single monk was allowed to move in and out of the monastery for three days. After three days of complete lockdown, the County PSB officials along with the 'Work Team' arrived at monasteries to question each monk regarding the protest demonstration. During one such intense interrogation on 19 March 2008, a visiting scholar from Dorjee Drak Monastery to the Samye Monastery called Namdrol Khakyab from Nyemo County, Lhasa Municipality, "TAR" committed suicide leaving a note that accused of unbearable suppression by the Chinese regime and cited innocence of other monks of the monastery and took full responsibility for the protest demonstration.

"Of the nine Tibetans sentenced, four were visiting Buddhist scripture masters to the Samye Monastery from other monasteries, and other five were monks of the Samye Monastery. Five monks are:

(14) Gyaltzen of Tsona (Ch: Cuona) County, Lhoka Prefecture was sentenced to 15 years' in jail;

(15) Nyima Tashi, of Gongkar County (Ch: Gongga Xian), Lhoka Prefecture was sentenced to 13 years' in jail;

(16) Phuntsok born in Kongpo, Nyingtri Prefecture 'TAR' and his parent were known to have shifted their home to Kyiray in Lhasa, was sentenced to 13 years' in jail;

(55) Lama: 23 year old Lama was sentenced to 4 years prison term by Dzoge County Intermediate People's Court on 7 May 2009 for his involvement in 2008 peaceful protest in Ngaba Prefecture. He was arrested by the Chinese officials on 11 August 2008. Lama hailed from Ngaba County, Ngaba "TAP" Sichuan Province.

(56) Namkho: He was sentenced to 3 years prison term for participating in peaceful protest in Ngaba Prefecture in 2008 by Dzoge County Intermediate People's Court. Namkho was arrested on 11 August 2008 along with Jamphel and Lama. 27 year Namkho hailed from Ngaba County, Ngaba "TAP" Sichuan Province.

Jomda County: On 22 May 2009, the Jomda County Intermediate People's Court sentenced a group of monk of Dhen Choekor Monastery on the alleged charges of supporting the activities of separatist, they all hailed from Dhen Choekor Monastery. Earlier on 5 January 2009, a bomb blast took place in Choekor Township, Jomda County, Chamdo Prefecture, "Tibet Autonomous Region" ("TAR"). The bomb blast incident was followed by few sporadic protests in the area. Few days later, six monks of Dhen Choekor Monastery were arrested on 9 and 10 January 2009 in Jomda County for staging protest demonstration. The prime reason for monks' arrest was their suspicious role in the bomb blast. The court trial commenced in Jomda County People's Court on 22 May 2009, the court convicted monks with various offenses of the bomb blast, taking part in protests, committing political crimes and the refusal to sign document denouncing the Dalai Lama as a "separatist and anti-China force". On 22 May 2009, Jomda County People's Court sentenced the six monks with varying prison terms. Six monks were identified as:

(57) Tenzin Gyaltzen: 37 years old abbot Tenzin Gyaltzen was sentenced to 15 years prison term.

series of protests in Lithang led by Ronggye A'drak during the annual horse race festival on 1 August 2007. Subsequently, the Chinese authorities summoned leaders of townships and monasteries in and around Lithang to commence the 'patriotic education' campaign in the first week of September 2007 which lasted for three months. During one of those "patriotic education" campaigns in Yonru Geyden Rabgayling Monastery in Lithang on 3 October 2007, Jamyang Tenzin confronted the 'work team' from carrying out campaign which required monks and nuns to write essays denouncing the Dalai Lama and demonstrate their allegiance to the Chinese government. Jamyang Tenzin even raised the question on the arrest of Ronggye A'drak and other Tibetans and expressed his concern on their whereabouts. He later concluded by shouting, "May the Dalai Lama live for thousands of years." Jamyang was arrested right away by the local PSB officials after the conclusion of the 'Patriotic education' session at the monastery and his status remained unknown until the court trial in the beginning this month. Jamyang Tenzin, a 35-year-old born to Thinley Tsering(father) and Tsering Dolma(mother) and was a native of Youru Sakhor Village, Lithang County, Kardze "Tibetan Autonomous Prefecture" ('TAP'), Sichuan Province. Jamyang was a monk of Yonru Geyden Rabgayling Monastery, a small branch monastery under the umbrella of Lithang Monastery. Jamyang visited India in 1995 and studied at Gaden Jangtse Monastery in South India until his return to Tibet in 2004. While returning to Tibet, he was detained at the Nepal-Tibet border and later detained for three months.

(94) Namlha: Namlha hailed from Thanka Drungu village, Tsashul Township, Diru County, Nagchu Prefecture "TAR". He was arrested and sentenced because of his act of bringing down the Chinese National flag at a school in Tsashul Township in April 2009. Namlha was sentenced to 2 year prison term by a Court in Nagchu Prefecture.

(95) Tsewang Jigdrak: Along with Namlha, he brought down the Chinese National flag at a school in Tsashul Township in April 2009. Tsewang Jigdrak was also sentenced to 2 years prison term by a court in Nagchu Prefecture. He hailed from Thanka Drungu village, Tsashul Township, Diru County, Nagchu Prefecture "TAR".

Machen County People's Court found them guilty of inciting protests and demonstrations against the Chinese government following the suicide of Tashi Sangpo, who took his own life by drowning into Yellow River [Tib: Machu River] on 21 March 2009. The suicide of monk Tashi Sangpo was blamed for the prolong detention coupled with harsh beatings, inhumane torture and long interrogation he suffered at the local detention centre since his arrest on 10 March 2009. Subsequently, by late afternoon of 21 March 2009, few moments after the news of Tashi Sangpo's suicide, Ragya monks stormed the local Public Security Bureau (PSB) office to demand answer for Tashi Sangpo's death.

In response the Chinese authorities arrested many monks of Ragya Monastery and other ordinary Tibetans, of which eighth of them were tried by the People's Court of Machen County, Golog "TAP", Qinghai Province and sentenced to varying prison terms on 13 August 2009.

The eight indicted Tibetans were identified as:

(100) Palden Gyatso: a disciplinarian at Ragya Monastery, sentenced to seven years rigorous imprisonment.

(101) Tsultrim: a former disciplinarian of Ragya Monastery was given four years of rigorous imprisonment. He was also a former Chant master, well trained in performing ritual prayers and a scholar on vinaya teachings (monastic code of conduct).

(102) Sangpo was given three-year prison sentence. He was a former treasurer of Ragya Monastery.
